

AutoZone Chief Financial Officer Jamere Jackson to Depart November 25, 2026

October 26, 2026

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 26, 2026 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- AutoZone, Inc. (NYSE: AZO) today announced that Jamere Jackson has resigned as Chief Financial Officer effective November 25, 2026, after which he will assume the position of Chief Financial Officer of FedEx Corporation. "During Jamere's six-year tenure at AutoZone, he was a key contributor in helping shape the strategies we implemented to drive record sales, earnings, and earnings per share. I appreciate his many contributions to our success and wish him well in his future endeavors," said Phil Daniele, President and Chief Executive Officer. "We have commenced an external search for his successor. I am confident the experienced, deeply tenured, finance and accounting team we have will ensure seamless continuity and will deliver exceptional financial leadership. Our strategies are well established, and we believe we are on track for a solid fiscal 2027."

About AutoZone (NYSE: AZO)

As of August 29, 2026, the Company had 6,863 stores in the U.S., 1,001 in Mexico and 167 in Brazil for a total store count of 8,031.

AutoZone is a leading retailer and distributor of automotive replacement parts and accessories in the Americas. Each store carries an extensive product line for cars, sport utility vehicles, vans and light duty trucks, including new and remanufactured automotive hard parts, maintenance items, accessories, and non-automotive products. The majority of stores have a commercial sales program that provides prompt delivery of parts and other products and commercial credit to local, regional and national repair garages, dealers, service stations, fleet owners and other accounts. AutoZone also sells automotive hard parts, maintenance items, accessories and non-automotive products through www.autozone.com, and our commercial customers can make purchases through www.autozonepro.com. Additionally, we sell the ALLDATA brand of automotive diagnostic, repair, collision and shop management software through www.alldata.com. We also provide product information on our Duralast branded products through www.duralastparts.com. AutoZone does not derive revenue from automotive repair or installation services.
