

AutoZone Announces Promotions

October 21, 1999

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 21 /PRNewswire/ -- John C. Adams, Jr., chairman and chief executive officer of AutoZone, Inc. (NYSE: AZO), announced the following promotions:

Bill Rhodes, 34, previously vice president - finance, was promoted to senior vice president - finance. He reports to Bob Hunt, executive vice president - chief financial officer.

Mike Broderick, 32, previously regional manager, was promoted to vice president - stores. He reports to Jerry Colley, senior vice president -stores.

Eric Gould, 30, previously director - replenishment, was promoted to vice president - replenishment. He reports to Mike Longo, senior vice president -distribution.

Lesley Hartney, 34, previously director - communications, was promoted to vice president - communications and training. She reports to Joe Fabiano, senior vice president - human resources.

Matt Henson, 33, previously director of human resources development, was promoted to vice president - field human resources. He reports to Joe Fabiano, senior vice president - human resources.

Emma Jo Kauffman, 44, previously director of investor relations, was promoted to vice president - investor relations. She reports to Bob Hunt, executive vice president - chief financial officer.

SOURCE AutoZone, Inc.