

AutoZone Names Senior Vice President, Human Resources

February 12, 2001

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Feb. 12 /PRNewswire/ -- AutoZone, Inc. (NYSE: AZO) announced Daisy L. Vanderlinde, 49, has joined the company as senior vice president, human resources, pending board approval. Vanderlinde has served in a variety of senior human resources positions in the retail industry, most recently as vice president of human resources for Tractor Supply Company in Nashville, TN. Prior to that, she was vice president of human resources for Marshalls, Inc. as well as The Broadway Stores, a division of Carter Hawley Hale Stores, Inc.

Vanderlinde will report to Steve Odland, chairman and CEO. She replaces Joe Fabiano, who will focus on his new role as senior vice president, Mexico.

"After an extensive search, we're excited to welcome Daisy to the AutoZone team," said Steve Odland, chairman and CEO. "With her leadership skills and more than 25 years of retail experience, we're confident in her ability to take our human resources function to the next level. This will also allow Joe to devote all of his time to our expansion into Mexico."

AutoZone sells auto and light truck parts, chemicals and accessories through 2,956 AutoZone stores in 42 states plus the District of Columbia in the U.S. and 13 AutoZone stores in Mexico. AutoZone also sells heavy-duty truck parts through 49 TruckPro stores in 15 states, and automotive diagnostic and repair software through ALLDATA. On the web, AutoZone sells diagnostic and repair information through alldatadiy.com, and auto and light truck parts through AutoZone.com. SOURCE AutoZone, Inc.

CONTACT: Media, Andrew Burns, 901-495-7313, or Financial, Emma Jo Kauffman, 901-495-7005, both of AutoZone, Inc./